

Betula pendula 'Black Prince'

PURPLE BIRCH

This is an attractive Birch tree with fine dark red to purple foliage with dark coloured stems. Its size and shape makes it ideal for group and avenue plantings.

Plant for contrast against green or silver foliage trees. Its size and shape of this tree makes it suitable for group and avenue plantings.

Prefers moist, well-drained soil in sun to part shade but will tolerate short periods of wet and dry. If pruning, make sure it is in summer or autumn.
