

Eucalyptus occidentalis

FLAT TOPPED YATE, SWAMP YATE

A large native tree to Western Australia. A hardy tree suited to drier climates and can tolerate great periods of drought. The flowers are cream to yellow blooming between April to August.

Suitable for windbreaks, shade, shelter, and land reclamation projects.

Grows well in a wide range of poor soil types, including those prone to periodic waterlogging and those subject to salinity.

Foliage Evergreen

Form Round

Mature Size 20 x 10m

Family Myrtaceae

Giant

Evergreen

Round

Bird Attracting

Feature Bark

Group Planting

Informal Screening

Native

Shade
Tree

Disclaimer: The material contained on the Speciality Trees website is for general information only. Although much care has been taken to provide the information on its website, Speciality Trees does not warrant the accuracy, completeness or currency of this information and its suitability to your needs. All material listed on the Speciality Trees website, its associated links and product sheets are varieties either ready for sale or in production. This is an information source and not confirmation of availability. It is strongly recommended that users enquire about product availability independently of this source.