Hakea bucculenta x francisiana 'Pink Pokers'

PINK POKERS HAKEA

An attractive Australian native tree/shrub with an ascending branch structure. The green firm leaves are long and slightly curved. The flowers start out green and become a unique looking pinkish flower in spring. This tree attracts native birds.

Use as a unique specimen tree or informal hedge or screen.

Prefers a well-drained soil in a sunny position. They dislike phosphorus-rich fertiliser preferring a native specific fertiliser if required.
