

Laurus nobilis 'Standard'

STANDARD BAY LAUREL

Laurus nobilis is a hardy tree with striking lustrous dark green leaves and lovely yellow flowers. It is coastal tolerant and drought resistant. The leaves are oval shaped and hang from reddish-brown branches. The leaves are used in many cooking dishes. The yellow buds add a great contrast amongst the tree, opening as fluffy yellow clusters of flowers.

Excellent tree when potted and used to highlight window and entrance areas. Use as the the centrepiece of a vegetable garden, or herb garden. Leaves either fresh or dried can be used as a culinary herb.

Prefers fertile moist but well drained soils. Tolerates full sun to partial shade.
